2010-2011 Credit Counselling Services of Atlantic Canada, Inc. Scholarship

Saint John NB – Credit Counselling Services of Atlantic Canada has released its annual Scholarship competition with applications due March 26, 2010. Students from Atlantic Canada attending an accredited post-secondary institution in 2010-2011 are asked to submit a 500 word essay based on a case-study scenario and interviews they are to conduct with financial resource people in their community.

“We believe in a proactive approach that provides youth with the financial skills necessary to make sound decisions with regards to financing their education,” says John Eisner, President of Credit Counselling Services of Atlantic Canada, Inc.

Since 2004 Credit Counselling Services of Atlantic Canada, Inc. (CCSAC) has awarded a total of $71000.00 in scholarships to students throughout Atlantic Canada. “The goal of the case study is to provide the applicant with knowledge of the financial resources available in their community,” said Tamara Kelly, Education Coordinator.

CCSAC is a registered non profit, charitable organization, dedicated to educating consumers on effective money management.
